MORANSBURG.

Success to THE PUBLIC LEDGER.
Our school closes next Tuesday.

Rev. J. R. Nelson, Pastor of the M. E. Church, South, has been conducting revival services at Old Stone Church for the past two weeks, assisted by Rev. J. E. Wright of Maysville.

MOUNT OLIVET.

Monday was Court Day. The principal attraction on the street was the show of fine-bred stallions. The gloomy weather kept many people away.
Criminal Court closed Tuesday without trying a case. Only three indictments were found by the Grand Jury and they for minor offenses.

John G. Blair of Nicholas county, State Lecturer for the Farmers' Alliance, addressed a small audience at the Court-house Monday afternoon.

Hon. W. W. Kimbrough from Harrison and Colonel Thomas Owens from Nicholas, both candidates for the Circuit Judgeship of this District, were here Court Day circulating among the voters, and each seems confident of his election. Hon. Winfield Buckler of Robertson is also a candidate, and as all of the above named have been Robertsons the fight will be interesting.

SPRINGDALE.

The sleight-of-hand and negro comedy show at the schoolhouse Monday night attracted a very slim audience.

Bert Cruvey, an old and respected citizen of this community, is very sick. His friends almost despair of his recovery.

The Sunday-school at Bethany, under the painstaking care of Superintendent W. F. Hook, is growing in interest and numbers.

T. E. O'Brien, telegraph operator at this place, has been promoted and assigned to the Dover office, M. A. O'Brien taking his place here.

A fine filly belonging to W. H. Outten, while playing in the pasture, ran against the fence, a sharp stake running through the fleshy part of its thigh.

As Ed McDonald was returning home from a visit to our town late Sunday evening his cart suddenly broke down, his horse frightened and ran away and Mr. McD. was thrown out, but fortunately was only slightly hurt. The cart was completely demolished.

MURPHYSVILLE.

A. R. Howard has three valuable horses sick with quinsy.

Thomas Rhoades had a cow to fall and cripple herself for life.

Richard Berry is a candidate for Inferior Director, and would make a good officer.

John Kirk of Washington was in town on the 18th, buying calves or anything in the stock line.

Billy Means, the clever drummer of the firm of H. C. Barkley & Co. was in town Monday in behalf of our shoeless friends.

A. D. Ball is building a barn for John Case, on a beautiful site, which lays between the Murphysville and Mayslick pike at the junction.

Charley Reid, a Missouri boy, who has been visiting friends and relations, for some time past, is very ill with rheumatism at the home of his uncle, A. R. Howard.

The tobacco market is very dull. Our merchants Howard & Worthington, Galbreath & Gault, Johnson & Brooking, Buckley & Stevenson & Brother, have closed their houses on account of dry weather.

The election passed off very quietly. The withdrawal of Mr. Parry was a surprise not only to Mr. Parry's supporters but also to some of the grocers, who had laid in an extra supply to meet the wants of prospective and plethoric purchasers.

W. T. Tomlin of Sardis was in our town Sunday visiting relations and friends. Mr. Tomlin a few years ago was a merchant here, but sold out his interest to Johnson & Gault. He is now doing business at Sardis in partnership with his son-in-law, Charles W. Howard.

Born, to the wife of James Butler, of East Fifth street, last night, a daughter, weight ten pounds.

To Our City Subscribers.

William O. Outten has charge of the delivery of THE LEDGER to all city subscribers, and he will make collection of the subscription accounts.

Orders should be given to him, or they may be left at the office for him.

Subscribers who do not receive their papers promptly are requested to report to the office.

Real Estate Transfers.

J. L. Horton, by Allan D. Cole Master Commissioner, to Henry Gollenstein, 60 acres of land near Washington; consideration, $6,690.

T. M. Pearce to Mary Parker, colored, house and lot in Fifth Ward; consideration, $750 cash.

William E. McKenzie to Sarah A. McKenzie, 1604 acres of land in Mason and Robertson counties; consideration, $1,000.

Railroad Travel Delayed.

A land-slide occurred on the C. and O. yesterday afternoon, two miles west of Augusta. Several feet of the track were knocked out of position. The Huntington Accommodation, Maysville Accommodation and the F. F. V., all due here last evening, did not arrive until after 6 a. m. to-day.

Another slide is reported from Springdale, six miles above Maysville, where all trains were delayed for some time.

This Picture and That.

Those who want a really good local newspaper daily take THE LEDGER. The way in which its subscription list is mounting up is indicated by this life-like photograph of the city route-owner:

and this equally true countenance of his crab-apple competitor:

Breach of Contract.

The management of the Little Tycoon Opera Company has acted in very bad faith with the local Opera-house folks. At first they engaged a date for the 9th of April, subsequently changing it to the 18th, then to the 27th, and this morning Manager Frank was notified that the company would not be here at all—much to the disappointment of not only Mr. Frank, but to our citizens as well, who would have given them a crowded house. In the belief that we would have this company, the Opera-house managers refused several applications from other parties for above dates.

The Sixth Bridge at Cincinnati.

Work on the new Rapid Transit Bridge between Covington and Cincinnati will begin next month, and it will be open for travel next year.

The approaches on the Covington side will begin at the corner of Fourth and Madison avenue and rise by a very easy grade to the bridge proper. The bridge proper turns Westward by easy curves, and entering Elm street at a height over all railroads ends at the South line of McFarland street.

It will be over five thousand feet long and sixty-eight feet wide, twenty-two feet wider than the new Newport and Cincinnati Bridge.

There will be wagon-ways adjoining the foot-ways, the street car tracks being in the middle, and the rates of fare will be the same as on the Newport Bridge, way down below the rates now charged on the Suspension and Huntington bridges. The length of the bridge exclusive of approaches will be nearly sixteen hundred feet, and the road-bed will be one hundred and sixty feet above high-water mark.

ALEX. MONTGOMERY of Butler has offered a reward for the recovery of the body of his brother George, who jumped from Newport Bridge and was drowned.

AUGUST H. BODE, Esq., of Cincinnati, is taking depositions in the case of the Herman Keck Manufacturing Company vs. the Adams Express Company at the law office of Frank P. O'Donnell.

HICKMAN is to have Water-works and Electric Lights.

THE Maysville Fair this year promises to be one of the most attractive of the series.

THE L. and N. and the Kentucky Central Railways have entered suit in the Kenton Circuit Court against the Elevated Railway and Transfer Bridge Company for $19,000. The plaintiffs say they sold to the Bridge Company a strip of ground North of Willow street, and adjoining the tracks of the railroads. It is claimed the money has never been paid, although agreed on.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Catlettsburg Street Railway Company, W. A. Patton was elected President and D. H. Carpenter Vice-President with James Trimble Secretary and Treasurer. It was found that $33,400 was already subscribed and the books will be allowed to remain open until the 1st of May, by which time it is expected that the entire capital stock of $50,000 will be taken.
